

AS PART OF THE GREAT GET-TOGETHER

PLAQUERDAY!

ON SUNDAY 24TH JUNE 2018
DROP IN ANYTIME FROM 12PM TO 3PM
 TO VISIT OUR SURPRISING FAMILY OF INSPIRERS (AND YOU'RE WELCOME TO ADD YOUR OWN)

THOUSANDS OF NEIGHBOURLY EVENTS across the country will mark this year's Great Get Together - an initiative founded in 2017 by the family and friends of Jo Cox MP. It's a practical echo of Jo's first parliamentary speech: we have far more in common than that which separates us.

WE'RE MAKING our own small contribution to that spirit of bringing people together - with a happy and open-to-all happening in our tiny park. PlaquerDay is window to pop in and see the display of plaques about humanity, history and humour along the Uplifters Fence – as well as the unusual Seats, Contemplative Corners, and vistas.

IN THANKS FOR HER EXEMPLARY HUMANITY, Jo was one of the first people to whom we put up a small plaque in 2016. Now we have dozens in a unique family – an imaginative public way to show lasting respect and appreciation. Latest? Above. Exactly one hundred years to the day that he was killed in France, on 25 March 2018 we added one to Walter Tull, the first black officer in the British Army. Just a few miles away, another young officer was winning the Military Cross – and his granddaughter placed both poignant plaques.

OUR UPLIFTERS INCLUDE OTHER FAMILY MEMBERS and friends. And there's space for a few more. So if the idea appeals, get your own small plaque made - to bring or send along. It'll be listed in our Guides. Cost? A few pounds. Size? No deeper than 8cm or wider than 25 cm, please - to fit the Fence!

VISITORS ALSO HAVE THE CHANCE TO
