

An open-to-all cheery happening to share thanks to and for all sorts of people

THANKSGATHERING

2-3.30pm on, er, Sunday 19th November 2017
at Tally Ho Farm, Crouch Lane, Winkfield SL4 4RZ

At the tiny park with a mighty heart, we're having a brief and very informal happening for anyone to join in – plus the chance to get an in-depth tour and briefing on the many surprises and delights in this unusually historic place.

The remarkable story is in the Guides at www.thanksgivingfield.org.
Everyone's welcome (but it'll help to tell Park Superintendent Hugh Gibbons)
hughgibbons@just1.org.uk

PLACING OF NEW PLAQUES TO UPLIFTERS

adding to the two dozen already along the Fence

Giles Duley, humanitarian photo-journalist
Jean Vanier, Founder of L'Arche Movement
Lt General Jay Silveria, Superintendent of the US Air Force Academy
Brother Guy Consolmagno SJ, Director of the Vatican Observatory
Kerry Lemon, Artist of The Lexicon in Bracknell
Zoe Williams, Guardian Columnist
Chiuni Sugihara, "The Schindler of Lithuania" and

Vet & author James Herriot, who learned to fly next door at RAF Winkfield

UNVEILING OF THE PATERNOSTER PLAQUES GALLERY!

an imaginative exhibition of The Lord's Prayer in 20+ languages including Maori, Spanish from a Patagonian parish, Maori from a New Zealand Girls' School, Irish, German from a Schweinfurt church, Cockney by an RE Teacher, Lugandan, Welsh by a local councillor, Tagalog by a local Filipino, English from Saxon times onwards, God's Own Yorkshire, and Cheyenne.
The Gallery will be available to visit local schools, churches and other communities.

SOME UNLIKELY BUT UPLIFTING SONGS

including, of course, The 6.24 version of Whiffenpoof and Oh Be Kind To Your Webfooted Friends

THANKSGIVING FIELD

UPLIFTERS CELEBRATION PARK

